SURROGATE SPOTLIGHT

This month we would like to introduce:

Crystal

For so long I wanted to be a Surrogate Mother. Surrogacy is such a beautiful experience. No matter how much you may endure before, during, and after child birth... it is all so very worth it.

When I went into labor, I was excited because my IP's have waited and worked so hard for this moment, I was nervous and just wanted a healthy baby and smooth delivery. That is exactly what I got. On February 15th, 2018 delivered an amazing baby girl with no complications. To say I was relieved was an understatement. I feel so blessed and appreciative to have had this opportunity and experience and to have been able to give the gift of life, when so many cannot.

I feel so much joy in my heart knowing that my IP's are happy to finally embrace their bundle of joy. As a Surrogate you carry a child as you would your own. You nourish, protect, and love them. This feeling is unmatched.

Conceptual Options is one of the best Surrogate agencies, I know of. My case manager Melanie, has been amazing. I couldn't have asked for a better process, from beginning to end. I look forward to working with CO again.

From my heart to yours <3
