CONCEPTUAL OPTIONS' DECEMBER SURROGATE SPOTLIGHT IS:

Vanessa

My name is Vanessa. I am 36 years old and I would like to share my 1st journey with all of you. I knew in my heart I wanted to help someone create a family, I remember years ago hearing about surrogates helping to create families and I told myself that someday I would love to help complete a family. I have 2 daughters of my own which they are one of the greatest blessings God has provided me with. Two years ago, I told my wife I was ready to become a surrogate, the timing was perfect. She has always supported my 100% since day one, as she knew this would be a blessing for someone. My wife couldn't have children of her own so she understood and supported me even more.

From the day we met our intended parents our relationship with them started growing and growing. They have shared so much with us and our bond is amazing. Getting to know them and listening to their journey even before us had made us realize we were a perfect match. We, and I say we because my wife and our two daughters have been involved every step of the way. Our intended parents always thank me and my family, they agreed this was a community baby because everyone around us supported us along the way with so much love.

We delivered a beautiful, healthy, strong baby girl. The face of her parents when they saw her for the first time was priceless, it warmed my heart to see their faces with such a glow. As we were watching them meet their baby girl for the first time my wife comes to me kisses me in the forehead and tells me I understand even more of why you wanted to do this, you gave them the gift of life.

The most pivotal moment of my life was deciding to be a surrogate. Surrogacy taught me to use my compassion in an active way and taught me about giving back in the most living way-through creating life. The joy of giving someone a child, especially if you've known someone who's struggled with infertility there's no comparison.

Words cannot describe the feeling in my heart, I knew this family was complete, forever this baby girl will have a special place in my heart. My journey was perfect since day one, thank you to Conceptual Options for always guiding me and being there for me as I honestly didn't know what to expect with this being my first journey. We have been impressed for a number of reasons but the most important to us was all the love and support we received. They are always there when you need them and have no problem answering any and all questions. I was so happy to have had them with me through my journey, you make these incredible things come together so beautifully and for that I am so grateful.. To my wife, family and friends for all the beautiful love and support. To the wonderful Intended Parents thank you for sharing their little miracle with us. And as our intended parents told us they didn't only gain a daughter they gained a whole family, this is more than I could imagine.
