SURROGATE SPOTLIGHT

Spring

I have had the privilege of serving as a surrogate twice for the same Intended Parent. It was amazing both times, especially since the IP was such a joy to communicate with and be around. On January 23rd, 2016 I gave birth to a baby girl after a relatively pleasant pregnancy. The IP was ecstatic to meet his baby girl and to take her home to meet her extended family. As time went on, I received a couple pictures and updates via email about her. This past January 14th I gave birth to her twin brothers!

After my first surrogacy, I decided I wanted to be a surrogate again. I really wanted it to be for the same Intended Parent, if he would have me. Fortunately, he was willing to wait for me to be deemed fit for pregnancy again. As soon as I was able, I went through the IVF process to get pregnant again. Sadly, the first attempt and pregnancy did not last. But the 2nd attempt DID, and it was twins! The IP wanted boys, and he was getting two at once!

Despite a rougher pregnancy the 2nd time around, I would not change a thing. It was amazing to help someone's dream of having children become a reality. Watching him with his baby boys was one of the most precious things I have ever seen! I had my own girl then twin boys 18 month later. So, having a girl then twin boys two years later for my IP was very special. I feel as though I have developed a lifelong bond with my IP and look forward to seeing pictures and learning about the babies as they grow!
